The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age ((provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract)), because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law is the Federal Trade Commission Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, D.C. 20580.

If your application for business credit is denied, you have the right to a written statement of the specific reasons for the denial. To obtain the statement, please contact Lessor set forth above within 60 days from the date you are notified of our decision. We will send you a written statement of reasons for the denial within 30 days of receiving your request for the statement.

APPLICANT'S STATEMENT: Company has answered the questions in this application fully and truthfully. Company understands that C.F. may check Company's credit record and any statements Company has made. Company gives all of its creditors permission to give C.F. any information C.F. needs to determine whether C.F. wants to grant Company credit. Company gives Coast Fin. permission to give credit reporting agencies and other creditors information relating to any credit C.F. might grant Company.
